Arguably one of the hardest-working rooms in the home, the kitchen is a space where style and substance are of equal importance. Here are our favourite recent launches

MARTIN MOORE

The practical and the beautiful meet in harmonious unison within the New Deco kitchen from Yorkshire-based company Martin Moore. Featuring book-matched, marble-clad cabinetry and a seamlessly integrated seating area, this is the first design to wholly emerge from under the stewardship of Richard Moore, second generation of the family long-renowned for their classic-contemporary aesthetic. Drawing on the timeless shapes and elegant forms of the art deco era, the New Deco kitchen offers an innovative interpretation of the clean lines and geometry so closely associated with the period. Flush doors and clever use of quality materials elevate this into the realms of the truly special.
